

3 Courses

AI Basics and Tools for Creativity

AI Ethics, Responsible Use, and Creativity

Using AI to Expand Creativity

Jul 7, 2025

Al Rey Villagracia

has successfully completed the online, non-credit Specialization

AI for Creative Work

In this specialization, learners developed and honed skills to successfully and sustainably incorporate AI into their own or their organization's creative work. Learners engaged with a range of materials related to many kinds of creativity. They encountered the expert viewpoints of their instructors as well as guest contributors who work and specialize in multiple creative disciplines. The Specialization's key skills included mastering SIFT (specify, identify, focus, and trust), a method for evaluating and implementing AI responsibly and effectively. Additionally, through a cumulative series of reflective assignments, learners connected concepts from the Specialization with their real-world creative work, developing a durable practice they can apply to various professional situations.

CHARLES GARRETT

Charles Garrett
Professor of Musicology, Glenn
McGeoch Collegiate
Professor of Music

Garrett Schumann
Lecturer
College of Literature,
Science, and the Arts

The online specialization named in this certificate may draw on material from courses taught on-campus, but the included courses are not equivalent to on-campus courses. Participation in this online specialization does not constitute enrollment at this university. This certificate does not confer a University grade, course credit or degree, and it does not verify the identity of the learner.

Verify this certificate at:

<https://coursera.org/verify/specialization/EH4VN3DNKGQ5>